

Hello,

I am writing to extend my deepest appreciation for your generous help in funding my education. I am incredibly grateful to be a recipient of the Lawrence J. Smith and Nancy Smith Award for the second year in a row. I really hope that they'd be proud of the journalistic work I am able to create at UConn thanks to their financial help. I hope to be an investigative journalist that the two of them would have loved to have at the Citizen of Laconia one day.

Thank you so much for this award, I promise to create work that the two of them would've enjoyed reading.

Warm regards,
Isabelle Camerato
